

LIGHTHOUSE HIRES DEBORA MOTYKA JONES AS A CLIENT SERVICES MANAGER

SEATTLE, WA October 1, 2009) – Lighthouse Document Technologies, Inc., a leader in electronic discovery services, announced that Debora Motyka Jones joined its team as a Client Services Manager.

Prior to Lighthouse, Debora was a Litigation Associate at McNaul Ebel Nawrot & Helgren PLLC. Her practice included commercial, employment, and securities litigation, business disputes and legal malpractice defense. At McNaul she participated in strategy meetings, took and defended depositions, managed discovery, drafted motions, and participated in arbitrations and mediations. She served as the primary attorney on certain matters.

Prior to McNaul Ebel, Debora was a Complex Commercial Litigation Associate at Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP in Washington, D.C. Her practice included multi-million dollar commercial and securities litigation. Her responsibilities included managing and participating in large document reviews, taking depositions, drafting motions, and preparing for trial. While at Weil, Debora was recognized for her pro bono service.

Debora received her law degree from The George Washington University Law School in Washington, D.C. She received a B.A. in Psychology from University of Washington where she graduated magna cum laude. She is admitted to practice law in New York State, the District of Columbia (inactive membership) and Washington State. Debora grew up in Vancouver, Canada.

“Debora is great addition to our team,” said David Rostov, Lighthouse’s Chief Executive Officer. “Her strong background in complex litigation will provide our clients with outstanding expertise in eDiscovery.”
